Fasting and Feasting in Lent

Lent is a time for personal and spiritual reflection and renewal. It is often a time of fasting as a form of personal sacrifice. Here is another idea: a FAST from an attitude or attribute that draws us away from God, accompanied by a FEAST of an opposing attitude or attribute that supports and nurtures our baptismal calling as children of God. Here are some ideas for your consideration.

Fast from judgment

Feast on compassion

Fast from greed

Feast on sharing

Fast from scarcity

Feast on abundance

Fast from fear

Feast on peace

Fast from lies

Feast on truth

Fast from gossip

Feast on praise

Fast from anxiety

Feast on patience

Fast from evil

Feast on kindness

Fast from apathy

Feast on engagement

Fast from discontent

Feast on gratitude

Fast from noise

Feast on silence

Fast from discouragement

Feast on hope

Fast from hatred

Feast on love

died.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

In the name of the Father, and of the † Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence for reflection and self-examination

Most merciful God,
we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the † Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

ENTRANCE HYMN, #339

Christ, the Life of All the Living

APOSTOLIC GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray...Creator God, you prepare a new way in the wilderness, and your grace waters our desert.

Open our hearts to be transformed by the new thing you are doing, that our lives may proclaim the extravagance of your love given to all through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever.

Amen.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 43:16–21

¹⁶Thus says the LORD,
 who makes a way in the sea,
 a path in the mighty waters,
¹⁷who brings out chariot and horse,
 army and warrior;
 they lie down, they cannot rise,
 they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:
¹⁸Do not remember the former things,
 or consider the things of old.

¹⁹I am about to do a new thing;
now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
I will make a way in the wilderness
and rivers in the desert.
²⁰The wild animals will honor me,
the jackals and the ostriches;
for I give water in the wilderness,
rivers in the desert,
to give drink to my chosen people,
²¹the people whom I formed for myself
so that they might declare my praise.

Holy wisdom, holy word.

Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN'S WORD

SECOND READING: Philippians 3:4b–14

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: ⁵circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; ⁶as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

⁷Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ.

⁸More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ ⁹and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. ¹⁰I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, ¹¹if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

¹²Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. ¹³Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

Holy wisdom, holy word.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL VERSE

Let All Who Thirst Come Unto Me

André Gouzes, OP

“Let all who thirst come un - to me!” O Christ, foun - tain of life, pour out your Spir - it up - on us!

GOSPEL: John 12:1–8

The Holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. ²There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. ³Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. ⁴But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, ⁵Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor? ⁶(He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) ⁷Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. ⁸You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

HYMN OF THE DAY, #803

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

During the final verse of the Hymn of the Day, the candidates and their sponsors gather around the font.

COMMITMENT TO PRAYER

As Mary of Bethany honored Jesus with her love and concern, so the church prays for you and for all the needs of the world, confident in the life-giving presence and mercy of Christ.

PRESENTATION OF A BOOK OF PRAYER

A book of prayer is presented to each candidate household.

Receive this book of prayer and a summary of our faith. Join us in our continuing journey of faith.

BLESSING OF THE CANDIDATES

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray...Merciful and most high God, creator and life-giver of all that is, you have called all people from darkness into light, from error into truth, from death into life. We ask you: grant grace to [names] and bless them. Raise them by your Spirit. Revive them by your word. Form them by your hand. Bring them to the water of life and to the bread and cup of blessing, that with all your people they may bear witness to your grace and praise you forever through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

God bring you in peace and joy to the day of your affirmation of baptism and to fullness of life in Christ.

Amen.

PRAYERS and PEACE

Let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs...

...Gracious God

Hear our prayer.

Into your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

And also with you.

OFFERING and OFFERTORY MUSIC

OFFERTORY PRAYER

Let us pray...God our provider, you have not fed us with bread alone, but with words of grace and life. Bless us and these your gifts, which we receive from your bounty, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OPENING DIALOG

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ. You call your people to cleanse their hearts and prepare with joy for the paschal feast, that renewed in the gift of baptism, we may come to the fullness of your grace. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -
san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord, heaven and earth are full of your glory. In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son, who reached out to heal the sick and suffering, who preached good news to the poor, and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension, we await his coming in glory.

Pour out upon us the Spirit of your love, O Lord, and unite the wills of all who share this heavenly food, the body and blood of Jesus Christ, our Lord; to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and forever.

Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.

Amen.

FRACTION and INVITATION

DISTRIBUTION to the FAITHFUL

We welcome all who desire to receive the Lord's body and blood for the forgiveness of sin and renewal of life to join us for Holy Communion. Please come forward at the direction of the ushers. Red wine or white grape juice is available as each communicant chooses. Gluten-free wafers are available. Young children and others who do not commune are invited and welcome to come forward for a blessing.

This morning during the Eucharistic liturgy, healing rites are available from two ministers serving in the Chapel. As soon as distribution begins, should you desire individual prayers and anointing, come to the chapel seating area and wait for the next available minister. You are welcome to seek healing for any concerns that trouble you: for yourself, those you know, and for healing in the world. Following prayers, find an available place around the communion rail to receive the Eucharist.

POST-COMMUNION BLESSING AND PRAYER

The body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in his grace, now and unto eternal life.

Amen.

Let us pray.... Compassionate God, you have fed us with the bread of heaven. Sustain us in our Lenten pilgrimage: may our fasting be hunger for justice; our alms, a making of peace; and our prayer, the song of grateful hearts, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

Today and next Sunday: Coexist?! Sometimes its easier for us to worship alongside our brothers and sisters from the Mosque or Temple than to offer grace to conservatives, fundamentalists or other Christians whose ideals differ from our own. PRLC and churches like Mars Hill church can coexist in peace. Come find out how the miracle of interdenominational dialogue is possible at a two week series of Adult Forum devoted to working for mutual respect for all Christians in Ballard and beyond. Hosted by your Vicar Abigail Perez Jimenez. Starts this morning and concludes next Sunday, 10-10:50am in the Tree of Life room.

Annual Easter Prayer Vigil. Stop by the Grace Station today and choose a 30 minute time slot for the annual Prayer Vigil for people in The WAY. Next Sunday a Prayer Vigil resource will be available to assist you in praying specifically for the candidates for affirmation of baptism. The vigil begins at 8:30 p.m. on Good Friday and continues through the night and the next day until 6:30 p.m. on Saturday when the Easter Vigil begins. Devoting 30 minutes in prayer for others is a powerful and enriching experience in remember the time that Jesus lay in the tomb. Pray in your home, in a park, in your lunchroom, wherever you are. Prayer is one tool that you can never leave behind.

Praying for Peace. You have likely been aware of the more regular inclusion of prayers for peace in Sunday worship during the Lenten season. The focus of these weekly prayers is on healing for victims of war and those who work as diplomats, leaders of the nations, and those in the military who offer their lives each and every day in the service of peace. By lifting these prayers, we are joining Christian congregations across the world and persons of all faiths in laying the world's needs at the feet of Christ, the Prince of Peace. On Thursday evening, 8 April, we are invited to join in a service of remembrance for the innocent victims of a previous war, as Christians and Jews join to mark Yom Ha Shoa at St. Mark's Cathedral commemorating the Holocaust. Many PRLC singers will be joining in this special service of peace and remembrance under the leadership of Valerie Shields. The service begins at 7 p.m.

Men's Bible Study Breakfast is approaching quickly. It's almost the last Saturday of the month again. We meet at 8:30 on March 27 in Fellowship Hall for a hearty breakfast and an even more hearty conversation. We'll continue our work in the book of Philippians, looking this month at chapters 3 and 4. Pastor Hoffman will lead the study, and we'll be on our way by 10 a.m.

Prior to each Maundy Thursday service, pastors will be available for the rite of Individual Confession and Forgiveness. We encourage you to take advantage of this Holy Week opportunity to receive the blessing of individual confession and absolution. The sanctuary will be available and quiet beginning at 10:15 a.m. and again at 6:00 p.m. and both pastors are available to pray with you during that time. If these two times do not work for your schedule and you wish to make an appointment for an alternate time, please feel free to speak with Pastor Hoffman or Piro to arrange a time.

Easter Breakfast Volunteers Needed. Easter is soon approaching and we hope you and your guests will join us for Easter breakfast in the fellowship hall. Serving time will be from 8:30-11:00 a.m. Fluffy scrambled eggs, ham, cinnamon rolls, fresh fruit, juice and coffee will be awaiting you. Jeff Hendrix and Ken Roscoe are also looking for volunteers to help with set-up, serving and clean-up of this event. We especially need help with the Saturday setup (9-11:00 a.m.) and the Sunday cleanup (11:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.). You can sign up on the "Count Me In" form and we will call you to discuss available duties. We usually serve around 300 people and would really appreciate your help in making this event happen. This year's proceeds will go to the PRLC Outreach Fund. We will once again ask Thrivent for matching funds to help support this cause and Thrivent members will be asked to sign in as participants at the breakfast.
