Prayer of the Day

Sovereign God, ruler of all hearts,
you call us to obey you, and you favor us with true freedom.
Keep us faithful to the ways of your Son,
that, leaving behind all that hinders us,
we may steadfastly follow your paths,
through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:15–16, 19–21

¹⁵Then the LORD said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazeel as king over Aram. ¹⁶Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. ¹⁹So he set out from there, and found Elisha son of Shaphat, who was plowing. There were twelve yoke of oxen ahead of him, and he was with the twelfth. Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle over him. ²⁰He left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." Then Elijah said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to you?" ²¹He returned from following him, took the yoke of oxen, and slaughtered them; using the equipment from the oxen, he boiled their flesh, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out and followed Elijah, and became his servant.

Holy wisdom, holy word.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading: Galatians 5:1, 13–25

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

¹³For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another.

¹⁴For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁵If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

¹⁶Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. ¹⁷For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. ¹⁸But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. ¹⁹Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, ²⁰idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, ²¹envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

²²By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, ²³gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. ²⁴And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. ²⁵If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Holy wisdom, holy word.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel: Luke 9:51–62

The Holy Gospel, according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

⁵¹When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. ⁵²And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; ⁵³but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. ⁵⁴When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" ⁵⁵But he turned and rebuked them. ⁵⁶Then they went on to another village.

⁵⁷As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." ⁵⁸And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." ⁵⁹To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." ⁶⁰But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." ⁶¹Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." ⁶²Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Announcements

Tonight!

Trumpet and Organ Concert 6-7:00 p.m.

Holden Evening Prayer 7-7:30 p.m.

The first of our monthly evening prayer services will be this evening, June 27. It will be preceded by a glorious concert of trumpet and organ music offered by Lauren Anderson (our Easter trumpeter) and Valerie Shields. The order of service for Evening Prayer will be Holden Evening Prayer, and the service will be followed by opportunities for Holy Communion and Individual Healing Rites.

New CDC Director begins 1 July

The Search Committee, Personnel Committee, and Congregation Council of Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church are all pleased to announce the appointment of our next Child Development Center Director, effective 1 July 2010. Congratulations, TIM SULLIVAN! Tim has been with us as a classroom teacher for eight years and through careful search, deliberation, and prayer emerged as the clear candidate to lead our center into the next stage of its life and ministry. Tim will begin an immediate transition into his new position of leadership, and we invite your prayers for him and his family, the center and the congregation as this transition takes place. We look forward to a bright and promising future under Tim's leadership.

PRLC Drama Troupe

The new Drama Troupe will have its first meeting on Wednesday, July 7 at 6:30 in the Chapel. Interested in digging more deeply into the Word of God by using space, movement and (sometimes) language? We will begin by exploring this summer's Gospel texts by looking at the white spaces of the texts. Curious? Join us!

Substitute Nursery Volunteers Needed

Calling all people who love crayons, building blocks, and young children. The nursery is in need of volunteers willing to substitute when our nursery staff is unavailable. Your responsibilities would include caring for our most precious members and visitors for small amounts of time. Volunteers would need boundary training. For more information please contact Amy Wathey 634-9443, wathey@hotmail.com.

Invitation from Dennis and Karen Cooley & Family

Thank you so much for your prayers for us and our ministry at Amazon Valley Academy in Belem, Brazil. We are excited to be traveling around the States this summer and seeing many people from our support team. We will be here Monday July 12 at 7:00 PM in the Tree of Life Room. We invite anyone to join us to hear more about our lives and ministry. Children are welcome. We hope to see you there.

Pastoral Care during the time of Pastor Hoffman's Sabbatical Pastor Piro is available for pastoral care during office hours and for emergencies at any time. During regular office hours, Monday through Thursday from 8:30 to 4:30 and Friday from 8:30 to 12:30, she is best reached through the main church phone at 206-783-2350. After hours and on weekends, call the church emergency pager at 206-579-3766. Pastor Piro will be sharing on-call availability with Outreach Minister Patrick Meagher and on occasion with other pastoral leaders. Pastor Piro can also be reached by email at bpairo@prlc.org. She is not in the office on Monday, her day off.

Hospital and homebound visitation are very important to the whole pastoral staff, but unless you specifically tell us about planned or unplanned hospitalizations, we don't know about them. Please tell us so that we can pray for you and with you and your family and minister with Christ's loving presence and mercy in times of special need.

News from LYONS

Our congregation participates in a youth ministry organization with 7 other Lutheran churches in Seattle, called LYONS (Lutheran Youth of North Seattle) 206-706-5997 • roaringly-lyons.org

High School- July 19-23, Oregon Road Trip!
Deadline is tomorrow!!! This trip will include a trip to Wild Waves, service projects and our final destination Cannon Beach, Oregon! Cost is $150, and the sign up deadline is June 28th. This trip is available for anyone who completed grade 9, 10, 11, or 12 this last year.

Middle School- August 16-19, Surf and Serve 2!
Our second installment of the middle school summer trip is here! We will be heading to Ocean Park, WA, to stay at a retreat center that has just about everything. Including kayaking, hikes and of course the beach! Cost is $75 and the sign up deadline is July 26. This trip is available for anyone who completed grade 6, 7, or 8 this last year.

Both trips are available to anyone within the age groups. Please do not let the cost be something that prevents you from going! LYONS has scholarships available. Registration packets have been sent out, but if you have questions or did not receive a packet give Julie (383-9511) or Billy (383-9446) a call.
