after Epiphany*

*Everyone is searching for you ...
Mark 1:37*

*February 5, 2012
8:30 & 11:00 a.m.*

Welcome Visitors:

We welcome all who worship with us today.

Here are some notes about our congregation and our facility to help you feel at home among us.

Nursery A staffed nursery is available for children from birth through age 5 on the sanctuary level down the hall past the drinking fountain. Please sign your child in and out of nursery care. Usually parents gather their children before communion so that they can come to the Table together. An usher will be glad to direct you.

Restrooms are located on the sanctuary level just past the library. In addition to Men's and Women's rooms there is also a Family room with a changing table.

Count Me In Form is that little slip of paper in your worship folder. We ask all worshippers to complete this each week. Special prayer requests may be made on the back of the form and if there are special "sign ups" you can do that on the back. Place it in the offering plate as it is circulated during the service.

Grace Station is an outreach of the church office available every Sunday morning. Office Manager Christina Bogar is there to provide information about our church and to receive information such as address, phone or email changes, prayer requests and news about illness or hospitalizations. Current newsletters and program information are located there. Look for the "check in desk" in the church gathering area.

The Latte Cart is open between services on the 200 level, one floor below the sanctuary. Payment for lattes and other specialty beverages is by donation and proceeds are used to support various special projects or ministries. Fair-trade coffee and teas are served. On some Sundays there are treats and fellowship in the Narthex immediately following the service.

Check out the Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church website at www.prlc.org for more information on our congregation, our ministries and many opportunities for service and study.

WELCOME

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

In the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness. Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters and by your Word you created the world, calling forth life in which you took delight.

Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family. Through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom. At the river your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit. By water and your Word you claim us as daughters and sons, making us heirs of your promise and servants of all.

We praise you for the gift of water that sustains life, and above all we praise you for the gift of new life in Jesus Christ. Shower us with your Spirit, and renew our lives with your forgiveness, grace, and love.

To you be given honor and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING: Isaiah 40:21–31

Have you not known? Have you not heard?

Has it not been told you from the beginning?

Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

It is he who sits above the circle of the earth,
and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers;
who stretches out the heavens like a curtain,
and spreads them like a tent to live in;

who brings princes to naught,
and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing.

Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown,
scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth,
when he blows upon them, and they wither,
and the tempest carries them off like stubble.

To whom then will you compare me,
or who is my equal? says the Holy One.

Lift up your eyes on high and see:

Who created these?

He who brings out their host and numbers them,
calling them all by name;
because he is great in strength,
mighty in power,
not one is missing.

Why do you say, O Jacob,
and speak, O Israel,

"My way is hidden from the LORD,
and my right is disregarded by my God"?

Have you not known? Have you not heard?

The LORD is the everlasting God,

the Creator of the ends of the earth.
He does not faint or grow weary;
his understanding is unsearchable.
He gives power to the faint,
and strengthens the powerless.
Even youths will faint and be weary,
and the young will fall exhausted;
but those who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength,
they shall mount up with wings like eagles,
they shall run and not be weary,
they shall walk and not faint.

Holy wisdom, holy word.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSE (11:00) Psalm 147

Please join in singing the following refrain at the direction of the cantor.

How pleas - ant it is to ho - nor God with praise, hal - le - lu - jah.

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 9:16–23

If I proclaim the gospel, this gives me no ground for boasting, for an obligation is laid on me, and woe to me if I do not proclaim the gospel! For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission. What then is my reward? Just this: that in my proclamation I may make the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my rights in the gospel.

For though I am free with respect to all, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win more of them. To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) so that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law) so that I might win those outside the law. To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means save some. I do it all for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.

Holy wisdom, holy word.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL VERSE

Please rise and join in singing: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

HOLY GOSPEL: Mark 1:29-39

The Holy Gospel according to Mark, the first chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

As soon as they left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you." He answered, "Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do." And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Liturgy of the Meal

OFFERTORY PRAYER

Let us pray...

Merciful God, as grains of wheat scattered upon the hills were gathered together to become one bread, so let your church be gathered together from the ends of the earth into your kingdom, for yours is the glory through Jesus Christ, now and forever. Amen.

OPENING DIALOG AND PROPER PREFACE

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san-na. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

Blessed are you, O holy God: you are the Life and Light of all. By your powerful word you created all things. Through the prophets you called your people to be a light to the nations.

Blessed are you for Jesus, your Son. He is your Light shining in our darkness and revealing to us your mercy and might.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his preaching and healing, his dying and rising, and his promise to come again, we await that day when all the universe will rejoice in your holy and life-giving light.

By your Spirit bless us and this meal, that, refreshed with this heavenly food, we may be light of the world, revealing the brilliance of your Son.

Through him all glory and honor is yours, Almighty Father, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy Church, both now and forever. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD AND INVITATION TO THE TABLE

Announcements

Lutheran Counseling Network at PRLC This Morning

This morning our worship is graced with the presence of two fine pastors from Lutheran Counseling Network. Rosemary Raynaud counsels here in our office regularly and is ordained in the United Church of Christ. Penelope Guntermann is an ELCA pastor and has a counseling practice with LCN as well. Both have seen many PRLC clients over the years and offered countless hours of top-notch, Christian-based therapy to men, women, and children both inside and outside the family of faith.

Pastors Raynaud and Guntermann will preach at both our services this morning and also lead Adult Forum in the Tree of Life Room at 10:00 a.m.

ELCA Malaria Fund

Today's the last day to make a contribution for the Malaria Fund in honor of Pastor Hoffman's 30th Anniversary of Ordination. To date, we've collected about $1,700, shy of our hoped-for goal of $3,000. Use a pew envelope clearly marked "Malaria Fund," or write the same in your check memo line. Just this past week two returning missionaries from Tanzania visited our staff and, upon hearing about this project, simply said, "Mosquito nets save lives. Thank you for adopting this worthwhile project."

The PRLC Ministries Fair is Coming

PRLC will be having a Ministries Fair on February 12th in between services to show how God is using this congregation to serve our community, and to give you an opportunity to become a part of this work that God continues to call us to through the power of the Holy Spirit. Over 40 different ministries will be represented. There will be displays, people to talk to who have been involved in these different ministries, snacks, drinks, and a raffle. So mark February 12th on your calendars, because you won't want to miss this!

Interfaith Advocacy Day in Olympia – February 14th

It's time again to register for the annual Interfaith Advocacy Day occurring on Tuesday, February 14th. IFAD brings together social justice advocates from faith communities and nonprofits across the state of Washington. The day's activities include workshops on issues such as the state budget, environment, disability services, and housing and homelessness. You'll also participate in legislative briefings, visits with your state legislators, and an interfaith worship. This year the faith community is uniting on Valentine's Day to call on our legislators to unite their hearts and minds and raise revenue instead of cutting funding for programs that support the common good. Join Minister of Outreach Patrick and others from PRLC for this important advocacy moment.

PRLC GOSPEL CHOIR CELEBRATES A DECADE OF SPIRIT

The Gospel Choir is celebrating 10 years of ministry to the church and community this spring. There are several events planned including an Evening Prayer Service/Concert at PRLC, Festival Pentecost Worship at both services, Community Concerts at the Greenwood/Phinney ArtWalk and culminating in a weekend celebration at Holden Village August 17-19th.

We will be singing songs done throughout the past 10 years and are inviting past members to join us. It's also a great time for new members! If you have ever considered singing with the Gospel Choir, we encourage you to join us now. Rehearsals are Wednesday from 6:20-7:15pm in the Tree of Life Room. Speak with any choir member if you would like more information!

Tent City 3 at SPU

Tent City 3 [TC3] began in 2000 as the third tent city around the Seattle area. TC3 is a portable community of up to 100 homeless men and women with a strict code of conduct, security and required community service by residents within and around the facility.

TC3 has been invited to Seattle Pacific University for a 9 week period, bringing into that community an educational and tangible opportunity to live out its mission. Join them for these upcoming conversations about TC3 during Winter Quarter, 2012.
