Invocation and Remembrance of All Saints

Please rise, turning to face the cross at the entrance of the church.

In the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Let us remember all the saints before God.
We praise and bless you, O holy Trinity. You have taught your church that it is an ageless communion of saints. We thank you for gathering those who faithfully waited in hope for the redemption you promised, and now for adding us who celebrate the love of your Christ for the redemption of the world. Prepare a place for us among those who are already with you. Help us remember them as an encouragement to saintly living, exciting us to love, in anticipation of an eternal reunion.

Christ says, Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me;
for I am gentle and humble in heart,
and you will find rest for your souls.
For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.
And you will find rest for your souls.

Anthem

Requiem Aeternam

Grant them eternal rest, o Lord,
And may light eternal shine upon them.
It is fitting that a hymn should be raised unto Thee in Sion,
And a vow paid to Thee in Jerusalem:
Give ear to my prayer, O Lord,
Unto Thee all flesh shall come at last.
Lord, have mercy! Christ, have mercy! Lord, have mercy!
GREETING AND PRAYER OF THE DAY

The grace of the eternal God, the holy and living One, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be with you all.

And also with you.

Let us pray... Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

FIRST READING: Revelation 21:1-6

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

"See, the home of God is among mortals.
He will dwell with them;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
he will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain will be no more,
for the first things have passed away."

And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

Holy wisdom, holy word.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 130

Out of the Deep: Psalm 130

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice.
O let thine ears consider well the voice of my complaint.
If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss, O Lord, who may abide it?
For there is mercy with thee; therefore shalt thou be feared.
I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for him; in his word is my trust.
My soul fleeth unto the Lord before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.
O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy and with him is plenteous redemption. And he shall redeem Israel from all his sins.

HOLY GOSPEL: John 11:32–44
The holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him,
"Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMN OF THE DAY, #422

For All the Saints

Stanza 1: All, Unison
2: Men
3: Women and Children
4: All, Harmony
5: All, Harmony
6: All, Unison
7: All, Unison

PRAYERS AND PEACE

Let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs …

… Gracious God

Hear our prayer.
Into your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

And also with you.

OFFERING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Pie Jesu

Pie Jesu Domine, dona eis requiem,
Pie Jesu Domine, dona eis requiem,
Pie Jesu Domine, dona eis requiem,
sempiternam.

John Rutter

Blessed Lord Jesus, grant them rest,
Blessed Lord Jesus, grant them rest,
Blessed Lord Jesus, grant them eternal rest.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

Let us pray.

Blessed are you ... O God, maker of all things. Through your goodness you have blessed us with these gifts: our selves, our time, and our possessions. Use us, and what we have gathered, in feeding the world with your love, through the one who gave himself for us, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

OPENING DIALOG AND PROPER PREFACE

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our savior Jesus Christ. By the witness of the saints you show us the hope of our calling, and strengthen us to run the race set before us, that we may revel in your mercy, and rejoice with you in glory. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with Bernice, Harriet, Lowell, Elsie, Maxine, Elmer, Charlotte, Orlo, and all the faithful of every time and every place, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:
Eucharistic Prayer

Holy God, holy and immortal: surrounded by evil and bordered by death we appeal to you, our Sovereign, our Wisdom, and our Judge.

We praise you for Christ, who proclaimed your reign of peace and promised an end to injustice and harm.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, the sacrifice of his life and death and the victory of his resurrection, we await with all the saints his loving redemption of our suffering world.

Send your Spirit on these gifts of bread and wine and on all who share in the body and blood of your Son: teach us your mercy and justice, and make all things new in Christ. Through him all glory and honor is yours, Almighty Father, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy Church, both now and forever.

Amen.
LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.
Amen.

FRACTION AND INVITATION

DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION AND PRAYERS FOR HEALING

Communion will be served today by intinction at stations across the front of the church. We welcome all who desire to receive the Lord’s body and blood for the forgiveness of sin and renewal of life to join us for Holy Communion. Please come forward at the direction of the ushers. Red wine or white grape juice is available as each communicant chooses. Gluten-free bread is available. Young children and others who do not commune are invited and welcome to come forward for a blessing. Ministers are available during the distribution of communion to offer individual prayers for healing and anointing with oil. Come to one of the stations in the Chapel before or after receiving communion.

LAMB OF GOD

Agnus Dei, qui tollis pecatta mundi: dona eis requiem.

Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world, grant them rest.

Man that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up, and is cut down like a flower; he fleeth as it were a shadow.

In the midst of life, we are in death: of whom may we seek for succor?

I am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

PSALM 23

The Lord Is My Shepherd

The Lord is my shepherd:
therefore can I lack nothing.
He shall feed me in a green pasture:
and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.
He shall convert my soul:
and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness,
for his Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them
that trouble me:
thou hast anointed my head with oil,
and my cup shall be full.

But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN, #426

Sing with All the Saints in Glory

POST-COMMUNION BLESSING AND PRAYER

The body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in his grace now and unto eternal life. Amen.

Let us pray … By your word and sacraments, O God, you give us a foretaste of the new heaven and new earth that will be ours forever. Strengthen us in this vision that we might draw others to believe in the hope that is ours, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONCLUDING RITE

Lux Aeterna
John Rutter

I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me
Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labors:
even so saith the Spirit.

Lux aeterna luceat eis Domine:
Cum sanctis tuis in aeternum, quia
pius es.
Requiem aeternam dona eis Domine,
et lux perpetua luceat eis.

*Let eternal light shine upon them, O Lord:
with Thy saints forever, for thou art merciful.
Grant them eternal rest, O Lord,
and may light perpetual shine on them.*
Benediction and Dismissal

The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you
The Lord look upon you with favor and give you peace.
In the name of the Father, and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Go in peace. Serve the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Adult Forum This Morning
We will offer 2 options at 10:00 this morning for Adult Forum:

Election Forum III: Immigration. We will look at passages in the Bible to connect us with immigration issues and look at how we are called to make a difference. Actions and participation will be suggested.

When Loved Ones Die: Navigating Hard Times with Your Children. Children and Family Minister Nancy Monelli will offer guidance to parents in how to help their children express grief, be comforted by the promises of our faith, and keep the memories of lost loved ones alive.

LYONS News

- Friday, Nov. 9th. - Middle School LYONS at the Den.
  (6:00PM - 8:00PM)
- Guitar Night - Every Tuesday (7:00PM - 8:00PM). Larry Burris is there to teach you some chords and play some songs. We have guitars for you, but bring one if you have one.

Parking Alert
Some of us at PRLC have grown accustomed to parking occasionally in the business lot across the street, at the corner of Greenwood & 76th, when the office appears to be closed. Recently that business has adopted a policy change, though, and if you park there now YOU WILL BE TOWED, as a couple of members recently discovered. This makes it a very expensive and inconvenient parking place! If there is no room in PRLC’s parking lot, please look for street parking, which tends to be more abundant west of Greenwood Ave.

New welcome loaf baker’s schedule in the works
The welcome loaf bakers’ schedule for 2013 will be created soon. If you are interested in joining the group of dedicated bakers that provide the very important small loaves of bread each Sunday and for Christmas services, please contact Kirstin Shaw either by e-mail at bunnymom11@frontier.net or by phone at (425) 347-5260. Please contact her even if you have expressed an interest earlier but are not a current baker. Each baker will be expected to provide a dozen loaves of bread for several services per year (the number of times that you bake depends on the number of bakers we have) so invite your friends to sign up too. Pans can be borrowed from the church and recipe suggestions are available upon request.

Those of you who are current bakers and DO NOT wish to be on next year’s schedule need to contact Kirstin Shaw also ASAP. Thank you!
Mary’s Place Family Shelter
at Phinney Ridge Lutheran this week!

Tues Oct 30 5pm—Tues Nov 6 7am
Thanks to the over 35!! people who have volunteered to prepare, welcome, sleep over, cook & tutor.

A little information:
Where will our guests be staying and what times?
Each day they’ll arrive at 5pm & depart next a.m. Our 14 guests, all moms and children, will be dining in the library and sleeping in classrooms 301 and 302.

When I am in the church while our guests and PRLC hosts are here should I avoid these areas?
It won’t be a problem if you pass through, but if you can use the bathrooms on the lower level and other stairways it will help preserve our guests’ sense of privacy.

Where will the classes that are usually in 301 & 302 be held?
Please watch for signage about a temporary spot.

Our guests will have the option to enjoy dinner Sunday in the fellowship hall with The WAY group, or eat their meal in the library… if they join the group meal, we know we can count on you to welcome them without overwhelming.

Do you still need help?
Yes! You can help by making a donation to PRLC with “Outreach Fund” in your check memo line to help defray the cost of supplies, gas, and groceries. We also need volunteers to help move their items to the next host church this Tuesday Nov. 6. Please sign up on the Count Me In if you can help.

Dedication Service for Gethsemane Lutheran, Seattle
This afternoon, Nov 4 at 3:30pm, Gethsemane Lutheran Church (911 Stewart Street in downtown Seattle), welcomes everyone to a service of dedication in celebration of the congregation's new building and completed renovations. Rev. Wm. Chris Boerger, Bishop of the Northwest Washington Synod, ELCA, joins Gethsemane's pastor, Rev. Joanne Engquist, in leading a festive service of evening prayer to name gratitude for all who have made this dream possible. From 2-3pm, there will be guided tours of the facility that also houses Dekko Place apartments and the Hope Center (community services and meals programs plus Mary's Place day center). A reception will follow.
Food Bank Special Thanksgiving Distribution

With Thanksgiving just around the corner, the Phinney Ridge Food Bank is preparing for Holiday distribution activities. We hope that you will have time to help us serve the nearly 200 needy families that will visit our Food Bank this Thanksgiving. Here is the Thanksgiving Distribution Schedule:

Oct 28 to Nov 18:
Holiday shopping lists are in the tower entrance for you to take. Please purchase the items on the list and bring them in by Nov. 18.

MTW Oct 29-31 and MTW Nov 5-7, 5:00-7:00 pm
Volunteer to man our phone lines as we take reservations for the November 20 distribution.

Nov 1-18:
Bake cookies and bring them to the church kitchen. Cookies and coffee will be served to the clients who are waiting for their boxes on the day of the distribution.

Nov 19:
7-9 pm: Prepare the Fellowship Hall for distribution. Includes bringing out cases of canned goods and other non-perishable items. There will be lots of projects that families can do together.

Nov 20:
9-11 am: Pack boxes for distribution to needy families.
11-12 ish: Lunch
12-4 pm: Distribution
3:30-5 pm: Cleanup

Consider donating a large turkey to the food bank. With low-cost turkey offers beginning to be advertised, we will gladly make room in our freezer to accommodate a big bird. Twenty-plus-pound birds are in great demand for large families.

Take part in any or all events. Please sign up on this morning’s Count Me In form. If you have questions, please contact member Jo-Ann Cress or Outreach Minister Patrick Meagher.

Lutherwood Benefit Auction

Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church Basket

Lutherwood Camp and Retreat Center is holding a benefit show and silent auction on Saturday, November 10, 2012. Lutherwood is asking all the member churches to donate a themed basket to be auctioned off as part of the silent auction.

Phinney’s basket will be centered on the theme of music. Music has always been an integral part of our Lutheran heritage and has been incredibly important at Phinney. The basket could include music CDs, tickets to a concert, iTunes gift cards, a gift certificate for a venue that has music productions, a restaurant that is near a musical venue, or even something a person might take to an outdoor concert.

If you have something you would like to contribute, please bring it to the church office by November 8. All items are tax-deductible and a form is available. If you have any questions, please contact Sylvia Lorraine at siolson@yahoo.com. Thank you!
ELCA DISASTER RESPONSE
HURRICANE SANDY

NOVEMBER 2012

From the Caribbean to the northern Atlantic coast of the United States, millions of people have evacuated their homes and communities due to Hurricane Sandy. Strong winds and torrential rains have led to flooding and mass destruction. The storm has claimed the lives of at least 84 throughout the United States and the Caribbean.

The storm sent trees crashing down and left neighborhood streets looking like rivers. While destruction on the Eastern coast is devastating, please also remember the damage of Hurricane Sandy in the Caribbean as millions are feeling the impact of this storm.

We need your help. The ELCA is a leader in disaster response. Working through our local affiliates and global church partners; we stand ready to respond. Your gifts will help our church meet the immediate needs of those affected by providing food, water and shelter. And we will continue to help for as long as we are needed.

Please give today. Your gift, designated for “Hurricane Sandy,” will be used entirely – 100 percent – in response to this disaster. You can designate your gift for Hurricane Sandy – where the need is greatest, or you can donate gifts specific to the United States or Caribbean. Thank you!

Yes, I want to help!

Our congregation participates with seven other Lutheran churches in Seattle in a youth ministry organization called LYONS (Lutheran Youth of North Seattle). Telephone 206-706-5997, website roaringlyons.org.

Our congregation also participates in a Lutheran counseling organization with congregations from across the Puget Sound area. Lutheran Counseling Network is a coalition of licensed pastoral counselors who provide therapy in a variety of settings for a variety of needs. One such office is located in our building, with Counselor Rosemary Raynaud providing therapy on an appointment basis. Learn more: check out Lutheran Counseling Network at www.lutherancounseling.net. You can also reach Rosemary by phone at 206-364-1046, ext. 3.
